

FOELLINGER FOUNDATION

News Release – For Immediate Release

Media Contact: Cheryl Taylor, 422-2900

Local nonprofits awarded grants totaling $586,000

The Foellinger Foundation's focus is on children and families, particularly those most in need with the least opportunity. However, the Foundation also invests a percentage of its grants for other community purposes. The Foundation today announced $586,000 in grants in the Community Interests category.

African/African American Historical Society	One-year operating support.	$25,000
AIDS Task Force	One-year operating support.	$20,000
ARCH	One-year operating support.	$10,000
Artlink	One-year operating support.	$10,000
Arts United	One-year operating support.	$50,000
Embassy Theatre Foundation	One-year operating support.	$30,000
Erin's House	One-year program support for Peer Support Program Nights.	$15,000
Fort Wayne Ballet	One-year operating support.	$10,000
Fort Wayne Children's Choir	One-year operating support.	$15,000
Fort Wayne Cinema Center	One-year operating support.	$15,000
Fort Wayne Civic Theatre	One-year operating support.	$40,000
Fort Wayne Dance Collective	One-year operating support.	$25,000
Fort Wayne Habitat for Humanity	One-year operating support.	$10,000
Fort Wayne Museum of Art	One-year operating support.	$85,000
Fort Wayne Philharmonic Orchestra	One-year operating support.	$85,000
Friends of the Lincoln Museum	One-year program support for the Lincoln Collection at the Allen County Public Library.	$50,000
Homebound Meals	One-year operating support.	$6,000

Leadership Fort Wayne	One-year operating support.	$30,000
Little River Wetlands Project	One-year program support for Nature Education.	$15,000
Science Central	One-year operating support.	$30,000
St. Mary's Soup Kitchen	One-year operating support.	$10,000
TOTAL		$586,000

The Foellinger Foundation, Inc. is a private charitable foundation created in 1958 by Helene R. Foellinger, The News-Sentinel publisher from 1936 to 1980, and Esther A. Foellinger, her mother.

###